Poli's-The Poli Players, in "The Man From Home," 8:15 p.m.

Academy-"One Day," 8:15 p.m. Gayety-Rose Sydell and her "London Belles," 8:15 p.m. New Lyceum-"Queen of the Folies Bergere," $:15 p.m.

Casino-Vaudeville and motion pictures, 1:15, 3, 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. Cosmos----Vaudeville and motion pictures, 1 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Garden-"Quincy Adams Sawyer," in motion pictures, 12 noon to 11 p.m. Arcade-Skating rink; morning, afternoon and night. Ladies' Viennese Orchestra plays at Cafe Republique during Lunch con, Dinner and After-the-theater-and the Menus always feature culinary surprises. Rathskeller parties are popular After-the-theater.

Repairs to Steam & Hot Water Heaters. Phone A. Eberly's Sons (Inc.), 718 7th.

Connecticut Pies Always Satisfy. The dessert the whole family will en joy-delicious Connecticut Pies. They are generously filled and have crisp crusts.

The Great Bear Is an Ideal Table water. Office, 326 R n.e. Phone N. 4372.

Quincy Adams Sawyer

at the Garden, 423 9th st. n.w., today, Tuesday, Wednesday, Continuous, noon to 11 p.m. Orchestra 10, Coming, Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

Our Shirts Have the Right Feeling when you wear them, because we know how to launder them right. Yale Laundry, 434 N. Y. ave. Phone North 282.

Open All Night. Van Emon's drug store. 13th and E. Cap.

Miller Oll Heaters Best. 616 12th. C. A. Muddiman & Co. 1204 G.

Phone Your Want Ad to The Star.

D. A. R. BOARD TO MEET.

Several Matters of Interest to Organization Will Be Considered. The national board of management of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet here tomorrow to take up a number of matters of interest to the organization.

for consideration is the bills recently indo not have a change to cold, freezing for Alexandria crushing plant; schooner troduced in the House and Senate to ap- weather on the coming of the new moon propriate $300,000 for a site and building for the D. A. R., to be used supplemental to the Memorial Continental Hall, now ice can be returned to service as soon as owned by the society. The bill was introduced in the House by Representative Towner and in the Senate by Senator

The members of the national board of management are the officers general and the state regents of the society. It will be in session here three days.

ARTHUR A. KINNAN DEAD.

Patent Office Examiner Helped Build

Brookland Masonic Temple. Arthur F. Kinnan, an examiner in the patent office, died suddenly Friday night on the Maryland side of the river, a short at his home in Hammond Court. Funeral services were held this afternoon at Lee's chapel under the direction of King David Foote for drill and target practice in win-Lodge of Masons, of which he was a ter, the Pontonier has as a general thing member. The body was cremated.

Mr. Kinnan leaves a wife, a daughter, Marjorie Kinnan, and a son, Arthur Kin- his boat. nan. Dr. William A. Kinnan of the pension bureau is his brother.

Mr. Kinnan had resided in this city for twenty-three years. He was a native of Michigan, a graduate of Michigan University and was active among its local patent office since 1889 and advanced through its several grades to that of principal examiner, which position he gained He formerly resided in Brookland and for nearly eight years was president of the Brookland Citizens' Association and identified with all the improvements of that section His last active work was in connection with the street railway extension to Brookland and the legislation connected with it. He was a member of King David Lodge in Brookland and a factor in erecting the new Masonic Temple at that place.

COLLEGIATE CLUB PROGRAM.

M. A. Pozen, Georgetown Student, to Discuss "Science vs. Art."

"Science vs. Art" will be discussed by University, before the Collegiate Club in the clubrooms, 1230 11th street northwest, next Sunday evening. Members of the club gave a musical last evening. The program was as follows: Plano solo, "Chant du Biezer" (Gautiei), Miss Kate Ferguson; violin solo, "Romance Fastarole" (Wieniaski), Myer Fegan; accompanist, Miss Ferguson; vocal solo, "Good-bye," Jennie Finger; accompanist. Miss Gertrude Brooks; piano solo, "Valse Concerte" (Moskowski), Miss Dora Weiss; encore, "Laiticcola": violin solo, "Humoresque" (Dvorak), Myer Fegan; accompanist. Miss Ferguson; vocal solo, from "Rleonco," Dr. L. Glushak, accompanist.

SILENT ON DIVORCE SUIT.

Senor Don Luis Pastor Unwilling to Discuss Wife's Charges.

Senor Don Luis Pastor, Spanish minister to China and Siam, who has been named by his wife as defendant in a suit for the annulment of his marriage, was in Washington today. He refused to discuss in any way the suit which has been brought against him, merely stating that he expected to leave this country for Spain in about two weeks. He arrived here late yesterday afternoon and registered at the New Willard Hotel, and this morning left for New York city.

Mrs. Pastor was formerly Miss Constance Cassanova Lee of Virginia.

GIRLS MAKE SPEECHES.

Greek Letter Society of Central High Holds Banquet.

The Phi Delta Sigma Society of Central High School held its annual banquet in the gold room of the Shoreham Hotel Saturday night. The room was decorated with a combination of the high school and the society colors, consisting of green, gold and violet. During the banquet the notel orchestra played in the gallery.

Speeches were made by several members of the society. Those attending the banquet were the Misses Helen Taylor, Marion Taylor, Catherine Lockwood, Louise (Berliner, Susan Sheriff, Lydia Sterns, Agnes Carter. Marigold Whitford. Ruth Brown, Amee Truan, Helen Blackstone, Verna Hatfield, Heleneta Padgett, Esther Van Dyne, Hortense Zeh, Marion Williamson, Mary Lerch, Ray Weston, Lyle Rush, Dorothy Decker, Kitty Bracket, Jessie Ramsay, Margaretta Williamson, Marie Woodward, Rebecca Woodward. Dorothy Lang, Virginia Walker, Jean McDonald. Lang, Virginia Walker, Jean McDonald, Lois Beach, Miss Marjory Curtis, Dorothy Magoffin, Edna Espey, Dorothy Shaw, Louise Henderson, Nathalie Story, Flor-ence Goldworthy, Dorothy Barnard, Mil-dred Happ, Gladys Roger, Dorothy Wilber and Helen Sheriff and Mrs. Boetler.

LORD LONGBOW----HE DETECTS A CLEVER SMUGGLING SCHEME.

THE EVENING STAR, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1913.

"While in the Canadian secret service, engaged in preventing the smuggling of Chinamen into the states, I saw a suspicious-looking person with a tame bear going into a Chinese chop him an order of chop suey, and, by Jove, he ate it with chopsticks as nimbly as (Copyright, 1913, by W. Werner.)

harp and cheer you on your journey!

Several Buildings at Washington Park, on the Potomac,

Are Leveled.

the fire seemed to be in a hollow back to be seen. The property is owned by Samuel Bensinger of 1717 12th street

The fire started about 9 o'clock last night that the fire was in a building on Jones from Alexandria and for an hour or more

Washington Park, formerly known as ago as a summer resort for whites, but it soon was turned over to the colored people. About five years ago Mr. Bensinger purchased it and invested about

The Special Facilities Provided

WOMEN'S CLUB BANQUET.

Among the Speakers Scheduled.

Miss Julia Lathrop, chief of the chil-woman of New York and a sociologist.

will deliver an address on "The College!

$30,000 in improvements there.

Notley Hall, was started about ten years great.

the river front was crowded with spectators watching the flames.

resort in the summer months

"I managed to get the waiter to serve

Winter Happiness

By WALT MASON

I love the winter with her snow, as down the world she teeters! I blithely carry in the coal, to make the fireside cheery, and read about the long-lost pole and Amundsen and Peary. I gayly take my trusty

I at once grabbed the pole attached to the ring in his nose and gave it a blawsted, bloomin' sort of a pull, ye

'And, as I expected, the bear's head came off and revealed a very much excited celestial. I had not only captured a cunning smuggler, the contraband Chinaman, but also found several pounds of opium inside the bearskin, old top."

Cold Snap Makes But Little Ice on the Potomac.

Rebuilding Mount Vernon Railroad Trestle-Preparing Vessels for Service-River Notes.

Although the temperature dropped to below the freezing point Saturday night formed on the river, and yesterday the the owners of the vessel. only traces that could be seen of it were along the shore, where it had been blown been on a visit to his home at Tyaskin, December, while it amounted to nothing, lumber here, will return to his vessel to was considerably heavier, as the river Carolina to load lumber back to this was covered one or two nights in succes- city. sion with ice about a half-inch thick and for a time it looked as if a hard freeze wer eimminent. Conditions changing to warmer, however, soon made the ice disappear and since that time not a particle for the market; J. & W. lighter No. 1 has formed.

next Thursday all danger of a freeze.of any duration will be past and the vessels that were laid up to keep them out of Overhauling the Pontonier.

In preparation for returning to service within the next week or two, the United States Army engineers' steamer Pontonier is lying at her wharf at Washington barracks having some minor repair work done to her boiler and machinery. This work can be finished in a day or two f necessary and the boat placed in com-The Pontonier is assigned to duty as tender to the engineers' battalion of the army and is used to carry the solwork in connection witth the engineers' two or three months of idleness each winter and her engineer takes advantage of this lay-up to overhaul the machinery of A portion of the wharf-building outfit of Clarke & Winston is to be taken into Hunting creek, on the Virginia side of the Potomac, to rebuild the trestle of the electric railway between Alexandria and Mount Vernon: It is stated that the work will not be started until the latter part He had been connected with the of this week, as a mud-digging machine is in the creek deepening the channel to the brickyards belonging to a Washington concern. The railway trestle is to be strengthened and new piles and stringers will be put in where necessary. The wharf-building plant will be upon th Hunting Creek work for a week or longer, and on its completion will be sent to the Eastern branch to aid in the work in progress at the navy yard.

Capt. Kendrick and his son are hurryng work on the schooner Launcelot, which is lying at an Eastern branch wharf, in order to get her in commission bout the middle of the month, when she will leave here for Maryland point to and hull work that has been done on the vessel in the good weather of the past month she is to be fitted with a new mainsail, which is being made for her. The schooners Maud S., Eleanor Russell, . L. Bowen and Carrie Revell are in M. A. Pozen, a student of Georgetown creeks on the Maryland side of the river receiving their spring overhauling and painting in preparation for resuming service on the river in the latter part of this month, unless some exceptionally cold and bad weather develops,

Plans for Cruising Yacht.

built here for Judge Strider of the Dis- until they are formally dedicated and trict court, is lying at the plant of the Emerson Engine Company at Alexandria, and between this and the coming boating weather will be put in thorough order Andrew and the Washington Y. M. C. A. good speed on her trial trips this fall. It is expected that her engines will be worked up to their best, and when the boat goes into service on the river in the spring she will be the fastest vessel of her class. It is stated that Judge Strider will take a long cruise aboard her in the coming summer to points in New Eng- the Raleigh Hotel February 17, to Suffrage Study Club, will be another the Christian Endeavor Society of the GREAT GUNS!

Y'CERTAINLY

GAL!

LUGGED HOME

ENOUGH BOOKS

the ferry between this city and the steel plant, and for excursion service in the summer, she has recently been fitted with a high pilothouse and has had her deckhouse cut down and arranged more comfortably for those who go to and from the steel plant aboard her each day. In addition to this the engine of the boat has been overhauled and put in good condition for efficient service, and other work The Adelaide has changed her landing place from the K street wharf to the pier at Gregory's boathouse, foot of O street southwest. The steamers of the excursion fleet, ters! No flies to swat, no lawns to mow, no battles with moskeewhich each summer take many on trips down the river, are being cleaned up for painters and decorators to go aboard to make the boats ready for service. Within a few weeks the work of overhauling boilers and machines will be started and when this work is begun it will be a sure sign that spring is not far off. The bay schooner Edwin C., a frequent visitor to this city with cargoes of lumber, is at a shipyard at Laurel. Del., being made into a new craft. The vessel will be at the shipyard for several weeks and when she returns to service she will have been given a new lease on life, as and it was cold enough the greater part there will be but little of the oid Edwin of yesterday to freeze, but little ice C. left. Kane Bros. of Baltimore are

Capt. Samuel Larmore, master of the ram schooner Grace G. Bennett, who has by the northwest winds. The freeze in Md., while his schooner was discharging day preparatory to taking her to North Arrivals.

Schooner Etta, oysters in the shell from Ragged point beds at 11th street wharf light, from Alexandria at 9th street The weatherwise navigator who knows wharf to load lumber: Bryant's lighter Annie at Alexandria, oysters for the mar

Departures. Sloop Enola, light, for a lower Potomac point to load oysters for this city; schoon er Copia, light, from Alexandria, for lower-river point to load. Memoranda. Schooner Annie Camp has sailed from Baltimore for the Great Wicomico river, Va., to load; schooner D. P. Mulford, at Alexandria, will go to the mouth of the river after oysters; schooner Fisher is at Marshall Hall to load cord wood for this city; schooner Elizabeth Clarke is in the Wicomico river to load lumber for dealers

Tugs and Tows.

Tug James O. Carter arrived with lighter from Alexandria; schooner D. M. Key sailed with lighter in tow from Eastern branch for Broad creek; tug George W. Pride sailed with lighters in tow for Piscataway creek.

Will Soon Be Here

-the Lenten season. Spend it in the south

-climate ideal. Travel on the magnificent through trains of the Southern Rail-Direct line to all the south. Consult agents, 705 15th st. and 905 F st. n.w

BIBLES FOR HOTEL ROOMS.

Gideons Supply Over Five Thousand Copies to Be Used Here.

Seventy-eight hotels of Washington, including the most fashionable, will this month place Bibles in their guest chambers as the result of efforts made by the Gideons, assisted by the Washington Young Men's Christian Association. The Gideons, more formally known as the oad for this city. In addition to the deck | Christian Commercial Travelers' Associapurpose of placing a Bible in every guest; room of every hotel throughout the United States and Canada.

To supply the Washington hotels with -by the Union Trust Co., 15th & H sts., the needed Bibles, 5,022 copies had to be make it an ideal banking home for women. bought, the price paid for them being 40 2% paid on checking accounts. 3% on cents each. The fund to purchase the savings accounts .- Advertisement Bibles was raised entirely by private sub-few days, when they will be put on exhithe parish house of the Church of the Epiphany. They will remain there distributed, the ceremonies of consecra tion occurring about February 15. The Gideons will be assisted in the work of distribution by the Brotherhood of Among the contributors to the Gideon Bible fund in this city are twenty Epis- Club to be held at Rauscher's February copalian clergymen, Thomas Nelson Page 15. Miss Lathrop will describe the work and Mrs. M. Isabella Banks.

Will Give Luncheon

commemorate the founding of the or-Harry Randall, master, for service on be Miss Julia Lathrop.

NUMBER OF POLICEMEN REQUIRED IN BIG CITIES

Copyright, 1912, by Walk Masons

Census Bureau Shows Averages, With Washington Rating Highest Among Those Enumerated.

Washington Park, the summer resort for colored patrons, located on the Maryby the bureau show the number of em- only themselves," she declared. seriously as was indicated by first reports, which stated that the resort buildbrought here by the officers of the government steamer Gen. Swartwout, which covered. The total number of employes of the departments is also given. that the scenic railway, restaurant and other buildings visible from the river were intact when the steamer passed and Population of Washington.

It is stated in the report that the popufrom the river, and thick smoke was still lation of this city July 1, 1911, was estimated at 337,476; that the 38,408 acres of northwest, but this morning he had heard nothing from the watchman he has on the 19.2 men to the acre, the figures including grounds. The extent of the damage will forty park policemen and forty-one railbe determined when he visits the park way crossing policemen. The per capita cost is given as $3.14 Nineteen cities are given in the report, and for more than an hour the southern sky was brilliantly lighted up by the rewhich does not include New York, Philadelphia or Chicago. New Orleans conflection. This brought out the fire depart-ment at Alexandria, it being supposed the cities mentioned in the report, 125,440, with an average of only 2.2 men to the point. The flames were plainly visible 1,000 acres. Maj. Sylvester says the estimated population given by the census office, he is certain, is far too low, making the per capita cost of maintenance appear too

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

steamer Angler makes daily trips to the Clark University Alumni Organize at Reunion Luncheon. A reunion luncheon of the alumni of

Clark University was held at the Cosmos Club Saturday to celebrate the twentyfourth anniversary of the foundation of the university An organization was formed of the

Miss Lathrop and Miss Richards Catholic University, was chosen as sec mar of the census bureau, Arthur Mac Lorrain L. Hulbert, Johns Hopkins University; William S. Small, principal of Eastern High School Commencement. bureau of chemistry, and Charles W. of the bureau. Miss Richards has not an-Bacon, bureau of plant industry. Miss Sophie Irene Loeb, a newspaper Talked to Christian Endeavorers.

Woman of Tomorrow.' Mrs. Raymond Brown, president of the New York Equal Mrs. M. P. Heath presided.

PRAYER FOR REFORMS URGED BY MRS. ARMOR It builds rich, red blood. Try it today; 24 bottles, $1.50. Your dealer, or phone L. 254, Washington Brewery Company.

President-Elect and Advocates New Excise Law. lyre and seize a chair that fits me, and play until I bust a wire, or till my grandma hits me. A man can sit and close his eyes and dream without a pated in by the people of Washington March 4 was urged by Mrs. Mary Harris sore head, serenely knowing that the flies won't Armor of Georgia at the First Congregagnaw his nose or forehead. No chiggers will de- tional Church yesterday afternoon, when vour his limbs or ants bring dire disaster; what she began her local campaign on behalf wonder that his joyous hymns shake down a lot of the W. C. T. U. to hasten the consideration and passage of the Jones-Works of plaster? Oh, Winter, I could sing your praise excise bill, which has not yet been rein odes too long for printing! I'd not curtail by ported out of the House District com- Main 2440.

complexion! Storm, rave and howl, and freeze critics all over the country in abolishing Funeral Services Tomorrow Afterthe flies too dead for resurrection! You'll never hear me rant and the inaugural ball," Mrs. Armor said, "he carp because you tilt and tourney; I'll just sit here and slug my did a great thing in the eyes of God. Instead of this function, where the 'turkey trot' and other distasteful dances would rule, there should be held in the District at the time an enormous mass meeting. weeks. Funeral services will be held at It is a good thing for the nation that it will be in the hands of such an able, Godfearing man for the next four years: a Mr. Gee was a son of one of the pioington to imbue the temperance workers from Mrs. Armor, who said that if the churches of the city were filled with this variety of people there was little hope of passing the Kenyon bill, abolishing the "segregated district of the city," or the director of census the average number of Jones-Works bill, which aimed at a rethe larger cities in the United States home, and asserted that she had never husbands who loved their wives, and only larger cities under several heads, giving husbands who loved their twenty-five wives who really loved their the per capita cost of maintenance, the husbands, I don't mean that they loved number to every 10,000 inhabitants and other's wives and husbands. Not that the number to every 1,000 acres of ground at all-merely that they love only them-

> At the meeting last night held at the Fifth Baptist Church Mrs. Armor de-Armor will make her third address at a meeting this evening at 8 o'clock at Im-Columbia road northwest.

Today.

second degree. The indictment alleges that September 29 last Bean slashed the throat of his wife, Ada Bean, with a razor, in their home, 2112 11th street northwest. The woman died the same day. Jealousy is said to have been the cause of the homicide.

Charles Brooks, embezzlement; Robert G. Sultzbach, forgery and uttering; William V. Hunter, housebreaking: Robert E. Commbs and Izy Levi, alias Isadore Levy, robbery and assault with intent to commit robbery; Robert M. Kivett, forgery and uttering: William Shorts, embezzlement: W. Ollie Clair, forgery and uttering; John Ricks and Henry Honesty, grand larceny year class of Eastern High School will ! Class night exercises of Central High will be held Wednesday night.

CITY ITEMS.

Sparkling Ale Is Nourishing.

It's Good Policy to Get Prices from us before you order millwork or Temperance Advocate Lauds lumber. Phone Eisinger Bros., 2109 7th st

> It Takes Time to Eliminate impurities from beer and bring the in gredients to the right blend. Heurich's Beers are the oldest on the market-aged

"The Resurrection of Nick Winter." A tremendous tale of thrilling deeds three reels today. Virginia

Phone Your Want Ad to The Star.

noon at Gunton-Temple Church.

Samuel Austin Gee died at his residence, 615 Florida avenue northwest, yesterday morning, after an illness of about two 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Gunton-Temple Church, Massachusetts to the western reserve AND ARE SCIENTIFICALLY CORRECT nearly 100 years ago. In his early manhe moved to Iowa and then to the office of city judge. He was also a resident of Cleveland, Ohio, and El Dorado. Kan., and over twenty years ago came to this city.

For over a score of years he has been to limit the individual of the local point of th

For over a score of years he has been an elder and active worker in the Gurley Memorial Presbyterian Church. He is survived by his wife and two children, Edwin S. Gee, chief clerk of the architectural bureau of the Philippine Island government, and Mrs. L. R. Finney of

APARTMENT HOUSE SOLD.

07 16th street northwest, containing seven F. Dennis to Edith Tuckerman, Alice de Peyster and Charles T. A. Miller. The consideration is said to have been about $150,000. A part of the transaction, which was handled by Randall H. Hagner, is the large residence at the northwest corner of Massachusetts avenue and 22d street northwest, which was transferred

Predicts Cheaper Parcel Post. Representative Lewis of the sixth

Maryland district, in an address before the Interstate Association of Washing- the ton last night, predicted that present parcel post rates would be cut. He also plaver-plano. predicted that the weight of parcels to be allowed in parcel post carriage would be raised from 11 pounds to 100 pounds, and Other Returns by Grand Jury that express companies would go out of

> Dr. C. Vaughan 207 7th st. n.w. Ph. Main 2858. Plates, Crowns, Bridges, $5. Fillings, 50c, 75c, $1. Blank Books, Office Stationery,

HIGHEST GRADE French

Cordials Christian Xander's 909 Seventh St.

Hoeke & Crittenden

The "New 1207 G St.

Great Midwinter Sale Everything Reduced Now.

Buffets. now $19.50 $30.00 Value now $22.50 $35.00 Value now $27.50 $40.00 Value now $32.50 $50.00 Value pow $39.75 $60.00 Value now $45,00 $65.00 Value now $55,00 and Chairs at proportionately low prices. THERE'S AN ADVANTAGE

Dining Tables

They Are Made to Your Individual Order in the Leese Optical Factory

IN GETTING THE EYE-

GLASSES FROM LEESE.

532 Center market. Stand 72. Riggs market HEALTH CANDIES 100% PURI

Creamed Trinities, 40c Lb. Representing our still "New-three favorite candies in one. Parcel Post Shipments. 1203-1205 G St. Soda Drinks.

"Specialists in Player-Pianos." 777HEREVER the best is appreciated. there you will find genuine "Pianola"

The "PIANOLA" is a player-piano. but all player-pianos are NOT "PIANOLAS." Exclusive Representatives,

O. J. De Moll. Emmons S. Smith, 12th&GSts.

1890-Established 23 years-1913. E are ready for your spring account of inauguration. We write the right ads to Star Ad Writing Bureau, Robert W. Cox, F. T. Hurley, C. C. Archibald.

By Cliff Sterrett

Polly and Her Pals

YES WEVE GOT

nounced her subject.

DONT UNTIE IT PA! ILL NEVER GET EM

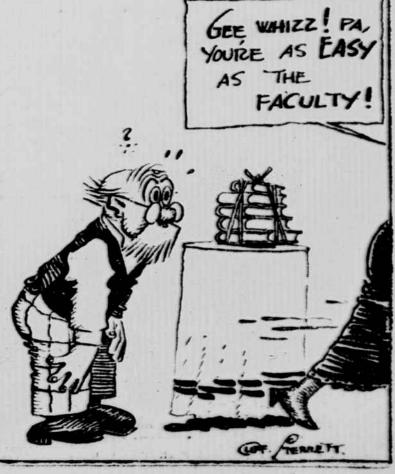

The Young Lady Improves Her Mind

IVE GOT A DANCE ON TO-NIGHT, AN' DID Y' BRING EM ITS A CINCH I HOME FOR, IF Y'AINT GONNA OPEN EM ?

WHAT IN THUNDER

A GERMAN "EXAM" TO-MORROW AN' I'M SUPPOSED TO DO SOME CRAMMING"!

GERMAN DICTIONARY IN THERE HAVE YOU ?

SETTLE A LITTLE ARGUMENT ! HAD WITH MA!

one your days! Keep up your merry winting! mittee. Pile up your clouds until the skies assume a dark "Whe

Would Unite Temperance Workers.

Advocates Jones-Works Bill. nouncing the "interests" who were bending every effort constantly to keep this bill from coming before the House of Representatives for consideration. Mrs. manuel Baptist Church, 16th street and INDICTED FOR WIFE MURDER.

Landon Bean, colored, was indicted today by the grand jury for murder in the Other grand jury indictments include

MIDYEAR CLASS EXERCISES.

"Love Your Enemies" was the subject liam Knowles Cooper of the Y. M. C. A. of a lecture by Charles E. Lane before will be the principal speaker. speaker. She will be the guest of Mrs. Fifteenth Street Presbyterian Church School will also be held this evening, and To fit the power boat Adelaide, Capt. ganization. Among the speakers will E. Dana Durand during her stay in this yesterday. A musical program was given. graduation exercises of the Central class

6 to 10 months. 2 doz. Maerzen or Sen-ate, $1.75. Bottle rebate, 50c. Tel. W. 1000.

Great Bear Spring Water. Bottled at the springs. 50c per cas

DEATH OF SAMUEL A. GEE.

Consideration in 16th Street Deal Said to Be $150,000. The seven-story apartment House 1505-

by Alice T. Miller to William F. Dennis.

"WHITE PATIENTS ONLY." Reliable Dentistry, Known in Washington for 12 Years. ASK YOUR FRIENDS.

orrespondence.
Loose-Leaf Books, from Memoranda to Ledgers. The E. Morrison Paper Co. OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, 1009 PA. AVE. N.W.

Wines and

O. J. De Moll & Co.,

advertising, which will start up earlier than usual this year on make advertising

Rooms 102-103-104, Star Building.

Y'AINT GOT A SURE!

Central's Program. Commencement exercises of the mid-good advertising.